Upper Dublin High School to Induct Inaugural Class into Hall of Fame March 24, 2017

Twenty-one alumni have been selected for the inaugural class of inductees into the School District of Upper Dublin Alumni Hall of Fame. They will be recognized at various events at Upper Dublin High School on March 24, 2017, culminating with an evening reception and awards program.

The creation of the Alumni Hall of Fame was announced in March 2016. The community was invited to nominate alumni whose distinguished achievements or outstanding accomplishments have significantly contributed to their profession, community or the world. The Alumni Hall of Fame is co-sponsored by the School District and the Upper Dublin Education Foundation.

Following a rigorous nomination and committee review process, Upper Dublin High School Principal Robert Schultz and UDEF member and program chairperson Heidi Yutzler Overton proudly announced the names of the alumni who will be inducted into the Hall of Fame in late March. The Alumni Hall of Fame will be located in the Cardinal Room Lobby on the second floor of the high school.

A Day to Recognize Inductees

On Friday morning, March 24th, 2017, 11th and 12th grade students will be introduced to honorees as part of a panel presentation. In the afternoon, small group discussions will take place during enhancement periods opened to all grades. This is an opportunity for students to meet and mingle with inductees.

An Honoree Reception is scheduled for Friday evening, March 24. The event opens at 6 p.m. with light fare and jazz music and attendees can congratulate the inductees. At 7:30 p.m. the induction ceremony will begin.

Tickets

Tickets are $20 per person and should be reserved by March 16, 2017, at udefoundation.org. The event will be held at Upper Dublin High School, 800 Loch Alsh Ave., Fort Washington, PA.
